AROUND the TOWNSHIP

Tardiness as a rule is not a virtue. However, had not one of the members of the Ladies' Guild been late on Wednesday afternoon when the Congregational Church caught fire the lives of 10 women enjoying the meeting might have been sacrificed. The late comer, Mrs. C. N. Myrick, broke the news that the roof was ablaze. Shortly after the women departed through the auditorium from the parlor, the ceiling of the auditorium crashed in. It was a narrow squeak.

The winnah.

Mailed April 2 from London to Lewis Rasmussen of Niles, California, Irish Free State Hospital Fund Grand National 1938 Sweepstake Ticket HT46-902 and checque order for 100 pounds sterling arrived Monday. If Rasmussen is correct in his computation of foreign exchange his gross winnings will be $533.

The document received was a four-page affair of larger than ordinary business letter size, full of perforated forms and instructions, with ticket attached. He has the privilege of collecting his winnings in person or handling the matter through the bank with which he does business.

A couple of weeks ago in this column we asked about the loan of a grass eating cow to mow the pasturage from our side and back lawns. Now we will be satisfied with a good sized calf and we'll even furnish the stake and the rope.

Most of the smoke on Wednesday afternoon in Niles was from the Congregational Church fire. However, the part that streaked down H Street to Main was Jack Williamson with his candid camera. In 25 minutes after the alarm sounded, he had taken, developed and printed two large pictures of the blaze and posted them in his window in the Niles Theatre building.

There's a literal example of speed that burns.

Special Air Mail Cachet to Publicize Niles and Canyon During "Write Home" Event

NILES—A deluge of air mail letters from Niles to all parts of the country is expected following decision of the Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Monday to sponsor "Write Home Week" in connection with National Air Mail Week, May 15-21. The matter was presented by Postmaster Edward Enos and adopted by the chamber.

It was decided to purchase a special stamp for all air mail letters going out of Niles and Mrs. Ethel Grau, Niles artist, was asked to make a sketch for the cut, showing transportation facilities, and the location of Niles Canyon and the California Nursery Company here. Every resident of Niles is asked to send air mail letters to all their friends and relatives during this week.

Enos stated that approximately 23 air mail letters per day left Niles. It is expected that this number will be increased greatly during the week of May 15-21. The Chamber of Commerce urges all citizens to cooperate in the effort to spread this publicity which will result from the use of the special Niles cachet on the out-going air mail.

George C. Roeding stated he had sent a cable to Hawaii last Friday night which was received in the islands on Saturday and on Monday morning the air mail reply was on his desk.

President W. B. Kirk appointed the following committee to arrange for the making of the special stamp: Enos, Dr. E. C. Grau, J. Boyce Smith and Gladys Williamson.

A report of the recent night session of directors was given with details of arrangements for the highway signs being reported by Dr. T. C. Wilson.

A. J. Petsche reported 52 members had joined the chamber this year.

Future Farmers Accorded Tour Of Dairying Plants

CENTERVILLE — Forty members of Washington Chapter of Future Farmers took a sight-seeing trip through various dairy marketing and processing establishments in the Bay section this past week. One of the most interesting of these visits was to the East Bay Creameries where they saw buttermilk being dried into powder to be used in prepared pancake flours and in poultry feed.

The raw buttermilk is sprayed into a huge room where hot air rises and condenses the milk into flakes resembling a miniature snow storm.

The boys were taken on a tour of the Alameda County Court House and visited the office of W. L. Griffith, chief of milk inspection of Oakland, who pointed out to them that due to dairying industries in Southern Alameda County and other nearby sections, Oakland is particularly fortunate in having a milk shed of less than 100 miles. Many cities, he stated, bring their milk for several hundred miles.

The visitors saw the manufacture of ice cream, the packing of butter, condensing of milk, manufacture of buttermilk. After lunching in Oakland they went over the bridge to San Francisco where they visited the Boardman plant and ended the day at the Livestock Show in South San Francico.

SLEEPY DRIVER CRASHES PARKED CAR OF HIGHWAY PATROL

CENTERVILLE — George Galway of 2423 Blake st., Berkeley, probably will be more careful about smacking into the rear of cars, even if he is sleepy, after making the mistake of crashing into a parked highway patrol automobile near Niles this past week.

Sergeant B. W. Reynolds and Highway Patrolman George Macer were in the act of repairing a fuse in the spotlight of the patrol car, when "wham!" Galway's car banged into the rear bumper of the parked machine.

Galway paid $25 after a hearing in Judge Allen G. Norris' court on a reckless driving charge.

BOY SCOUT EVENTS OF NEAR FUTURE ARE ANNOUNCED

NILES—Three dates of importance to Boy Scouts of the township were announced at a recent meeting of the Boy Scout committee.

They are the camporal to be held at the Scout house tomorrow and Sunday with Scoutmaster Lawrence Pine in charge; the court of honor to be held at the Centerville Grammar School next Monday night in connection with Public Schools Week and the Oakland Area Council Camporee to be held in Lake Merritt Park on May 21 and 22.

Members of the committee expressed great pleasure at the excellent condition of the Scout house due to good work of Scoutmaster Pine and the boys.

IRVINGTON COLLEGE BOY HONORED

SAN JOSE—George Jorgensen of Irvington, sophomore student at San Jose State College, recently was elected vice president of Eckert Hall, Y. M. C. A. cooperative house which is run and supported by 25 men students living in the newly founded residence hall.

RECKLESS DRIVER PAYS $25 FINE

CENTERVILLE —Luke Marino of Centerville was fined $25 for reckless driving with an h. b. d. notation, after a hearing before Judge Allen G. Norris.

Plan Vapor Lights At Intersections To Aid Neon Signs

NILES—Necessity for additional lighting at the intersections approaching Niles was stressed at Monday night's meeting of the Niles Junior Chamber of Commerce. The chamber will proceed with its effort to have sodium vapor lights installed at the north and east entrances to the town for safety, according to President Lewis Lewis.

The highway lights committee consists of Dr. T. C. Wilson, Joe Vieveros, Judge J. A. Silva, Lawrence Sharpe, Dr. E. C. Grau and Cy Solon. The illumination is needed in addition to the neon directional signs being installed by the Chamber of Commerce, Lewis says.

E. D. Bristow, principal of the Niles Grammar School, was the speaker of the evening. He discussed Public Schools Week and invited members to attend open house at the local school next week. He stated he believed this section would eventually have a Junior College.

A suggestion was also made at the meeting that a red light and telephone be placed in the center of town to facilitate work of the night watchman.

The next meeting will be held at the Florence Restaurant a week from Monday night.

THANK YOU, FRIENDS

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Day, through The Township Register, wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to the members of the fire departments, the Scout executive and the Boy Scouts and their friends and neighbors for their efforts in battling the flames and in removing effects from the Congregational Church and the parsonage at the time of the fire on Wednesday afternoon

Wide Discussions Feature Meeting Of Farm Center

CENTERVILLE — Everything from the breeding of flies to the extermination of weeds was discussed at this week's meeting of the Washington-Eden Farm Center with a full attendance in the visual education room at the Washington Union High School.

The chief speaker was Dr. Gilbert Scott of the Associated Seed Growers at Milpitas who showed colored motion pictures of experimental work being done to control plant diseases, variety breeding and other agricultural activities.

Director Paul Dougherty stated that the Farm Bureau had bought a weed control rig, stationed at Pleasanton, which was available to all farmers and that the bureau would match dollar for dollar for purchase of a rig to be kept in this community if so desired.

Announcement was made of the Alameda County Farm Bureau barbecue to be held at McKinley Park, Pleasanton, on May 8. This will be open to all members and their families.

Reports of the recent Farm Bureau directors' meeting indicated that directors had endorsed the move being made by the Hayward Chamber of Commerce to secure a federal agricultural experimental station in Southern Alameda County.

A letter was read from Ernest Schween, secretary of the Alameda County Fair Association stating that as soon as sufficient support was guaranteed, fair officials would approach farm centers for suggestions for the fair program.

Those who will participate in the broadcast tomorrow are Beverly Jean Macke of Niles, Richard Franco of Niles, Mabel Chieng of Lincoln school, Michael Phillips of Oakland, Norma Jean Bailey of San Lorenzo, Zoe Apostolides of San Francisco and Eleanor LaPrath of Oakland.

FRED NELSON HOME BEING REMODELED

NILES — Another construction job started in Niles Monday with the remodeling program at the Fred Nelson home. Two new apartments are to be arranged out of the present living quarters, making a total of three apartments.

The two new apartments will have four rooms each and will have furnace heat and automatic hot water heaters. The work is expected to be done in about 60 days.

Services for the Niles Congregational Church will be conducted next Sunday at the Odd Fellows Hall at the regular hours.

"Can We See Life Steadily and See It Whole?"—some after-Easter reflections, is the topic to be discussed by Rev. R. C. Day at the morning worship. There will be special music. Sunday School will be held at 10 o'clock.

NILES—For more than an hour Wednesday afternoon the major part of Niles residential and business district was threatened by a $35,000 fire which completely destroyed the Niles Congregational Church and parsonage, gutted the residence of Miles Smith, publisher of the Washington News at Centerville and damaged roofs of six other houses.

A stiff north wind sent flaming shingles from the church roof flying through the air igniting roofs three blocks away. Representatives of the sheriff's office and the highway patrol responded to the call for aid.

Chief Tony Alves and the Niles fire department, assisted by departments from Centerville and Mission San Jose battled the flames for about three hours, seven buildings being on fire at one time.

No injuries were reported but 15 members of the Ladies' Guild of the church escaped only a few minutes before the ceiling of the parlors where they sat sewing fell in.

The fire is thought to have resulted from a defective chimney and to have started in the attic over the Guild room where a fire had been started in the fireplace. Mrs. C. N. Myrick, arriving a few minutes late, noticed the smoke and warned other Guild members to leave the building.

W. S. Stockton, enroute from San Jose to Oakland, saw flames spurt through the church roof as he traveled along the highway. Rev. R. C. Day, pastor, and Mrs. Day were out of town, having been called to Berkeley for a birthday supper at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Irving Allen and were not notified of the fire until about 5:30 o'clock.

Practically all of their possessions were destroyed. A few pieces of furniture from the front room were saved. The loss was partly covered by insurance. The church building was covered with $15,000 insurance.

The Smith home on I street, a block from the church, was gutted, the roof and windows destroyed and walls and floors damaged with fire and water. Most of their household goods were saved.

Other homes whose roofs were damaged were those of Harry Abrott, Manuel Maciel and Frank Titus on H street opposite the church which stood on Third and H streets, Henry Hibner at Third and J, Harold Millard at Riverside and Third, the Mary Bliss home at Third and I.

Representatives of the sheriff's office and the California Highway Patrol were called to direct traffic and keep the hundreds of local residents who thronged the streets back from the fire. W. T. Lindsay, Boy Scout executive, and Boy Scouts assisted with carrying furniture out of the burning houses and in tearing down the brick walls of the church after the fire had subsided.

Mrs. O. E. Walpert and Mrs. E. C. Dawson were hostesses at the meeting of the Guild. Among others present were Mrs. Julia Shinn, Mrs. Ernest Martin, Mrs. Margaret Cozzi, Mrs. Anna Sladek, Mrs. John Galvin, Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, Mrs. A. A. Hatch, Mrs. C. N. Franklin.

The Niles Congregational Church was built in 1911 at the time Rev. F. V. Jones was pastor.

Further destruction from the fire is credited largely to the new fire engine which arrived in Niles a few weeks ago.

Quick response of the Centerville and the Mission San Jose fire departments is credited by Chief Tony Alves of the Niles department with saving the major portion of homes and business establishments.

With the flaming shingles being blown three and four blocks from the fire by a high north wind, it would have been impossible for one department to cope with the situation, Chief Alves said. Subduing the fire which started in the Miles Smith home is all that saved the south portion of the town, firemen agreed.

Concentration of efforts to prevent burning of houses adjacent to the church after the building was doomed also prevented spread of the flames to homes and the business district.

Rev. and Mrs. Day returned to Niles Wednesday night to take a sorrowful look at the ruins of what had been their church and their home. Mr. Day's chief regret for loss of personal belongings was for his library which he has collected during the past 50 years. He also had many books which had belonged to his father, formerly a minister in Alameda.

Mrs. Day spent the night in Hayward with friends and Mr. Day at the Lindsay home. Arrangements were being made yesterday for a residence in Niles.

Girls of the choir of the church in which they had sung Easter anthems last Sunday, wept as they looked at the black ruins. "We had just gotten our new vestments and hymnals," they remarked. "And Mr. Day's new robe and the organ and the two pianos and all the benches!"

Out of the ashes of the old, will rise the new church. At a meeting of the trustees held at the home of the chairman, Fred Duffie, first consideration was given to finding a place for services already announced for Sunday and tentative suggestions for re-building a new church.

Definite plans will wait upon reports from insurance companies which hold policies amounting to about $15,000.

The trustees meeting had been called on Sunday and was to have been held at the church.

FIRE ROUTS LADIES' GUILD

The above photo was taken soon after flames broke out and subsequently destroyed the Niles Congregational Church and parsonage at H and Third Streets on Wednesday afternoon. The home of Miles Smith on I Street was badly damaged and six other residence structures suffered losses. The Centerville and Mission San Jose Departments assisted in quelling the flames which for a time threatened a large portion of the town. —Picture by Courtesy of The Oakland Tribune.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

When we see today's youth in foreign lands stumbling blindly after the heels of demagogues, heedless as the mice that scampered to their doom after the Pied Piper, the words of H. G. Wells strike with telling force.

That great historian, after surveying the tumult and the shouting, the selfishness and the war-making, of our present world was led to declare civilization was running a close race between catastrophe—and education.

In education alone, in the development of youth's rich stores of skill and talent, in the broadening of their intellectual horizons, in the deepening of their human sympathies, in the growth of their tolerance and a wholesome skepticism, lies the hope of today's world and the promise of civilization's ultimate triumph over catastrophe.

California recognizes that fact. She has set aside the week beginning April 25 as Public Schools Week to bring the importance of that truth home to every parent, to every person, who believes he has a stake in tomorrow's world. California, whose teachers and schools rank among the finest in the nation, set the example for the rest of America when she, first of all her sister states, inaugurated a Public Schools Week 18 years ago.

Visit your children's school on this occasion. You owe it to your youngsters. You owe it to yourself.
